Vacancy

TIME CURRENCY PROJECT OFFICER

(18 hours per week, temporary contract up to one year)

Following successful funding bids to the Big Lottery and Herefordshire Community Foundation, LARC Development Trust, based in Leominster, is seeking to employ a part-time Project Officer to establish a Time Currency, supported by a Smart Phone application (APP) to value volunteer time across community groups.

This is a new position which provides an exciting opportunity to create a common bond across communities, voluntary groups, business and service providers leading to an improvement in quality of life and access to services for all.

The salary will be £9500 (£20,000 pro rata, 18 hours per week) plus 5% pension contribution by LARC.

To apply: please send a copy of your CV (maximum of three pages) with a covering letter (maximum of two pages) explaining why you think you are the right person for the job, highlighting your relevant skills, experience and personal qualities.

Applications should be sent by email only to adrian@grangecourt.org

For an informal discussion contact Adrian Marshall on 01568 737980

Closing date: Sunday 22nd January 2017.

Interviews: Likely to be in week commencing 30th January 2017.
